REGIE LIBANAISE DES TABACS ET TOMBACS

Regie at a Glance

Regie Libanaise des Tabacs et Tombacs (RLTT)

Régie Libanaise des Tabacs et Tombacs (RLTT), established in 1935, is a public company working under the tutelage of the ministry of finance and is led by its board members whose president is Eng. Nassif Seklaoui.

The Regie manages the plantation, manufacturing, and trade of tobacco and tunbac across Lebanon, from its north to its south along with its Bekaa valley.

Operating according to international world-class standards, the RLTT is leading today the tobacco and tunbac industry in the MENA region. Thanks to its highly effective management, it has been awarded the ISO9001:2015 certificate, to be the first public institution in Lebanon that has adopted a 10-year sustainable development strategy. Its development projects have benefitted so far 170 towns nationwide.

The RLTT plays a vital role at the economic, social and development levels. It is the fifth main source of income for the Lebanese treasury with revenues reaching 444 million USD in 2017, and it is considered as one of the pioneering public institutions in Lebanon.

Manchar Souwar Regie's Photography Contest

"Manchar Souwar" is an annual photography contest designed for both amateurs and professionals. First launched by the Regie in 2016, as part of the Institution's sustainable development strategy, this competition aims at supporting the artistic and cultural talents of the Lebanese youth, boosting their skills and shedding light on the social and economic side of agriculture.

2019 Photography Theme

For each edition, Manchar Souwar offers a different inspiring theme. The theme for 2019 revolves around "Women Tobacco Growers" as a tribute for their efforts and contribution to the sustainability of this agriculture.
